Superintendent's Message

I wish to extend my congratulations to you, the graduates of 1960. You have had many fine accomplishments to your credit as members of the Essex Junction High School and may I wish you equal success in your future efforts. We have been proud of you as students and our hopes for success go with you as you embark on your various paths of endeavor.

Hagen L. Wood

Superintendent of Schools

Principal's Message

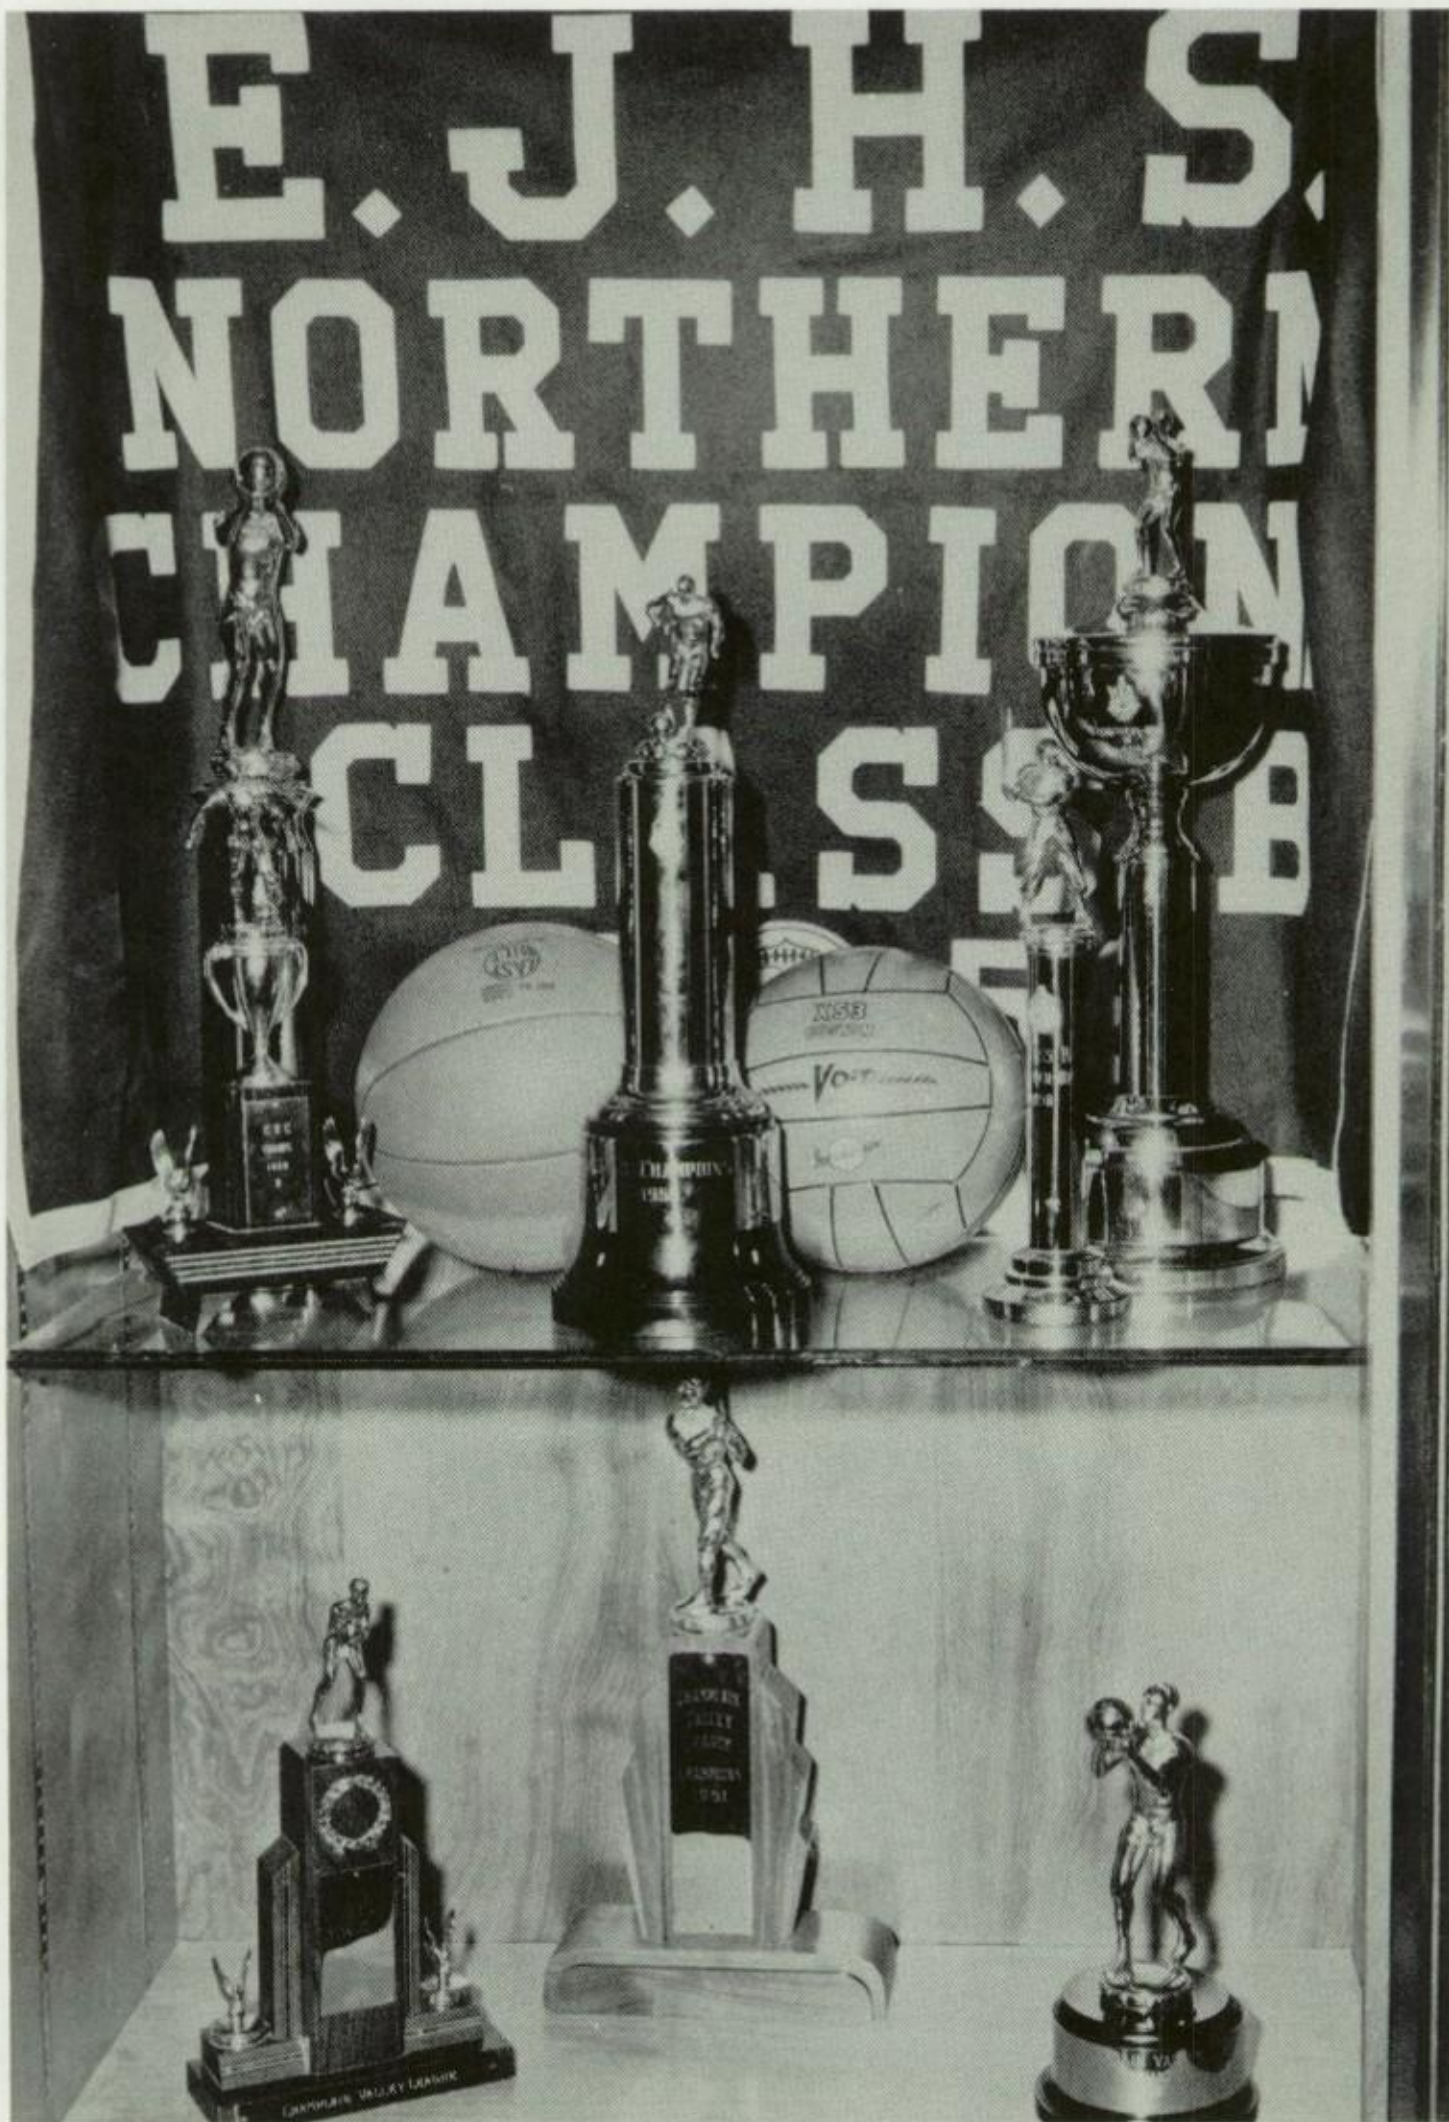

It has been a pleasurable and gratifying experience to work with the Class of 1960 during the past six years.

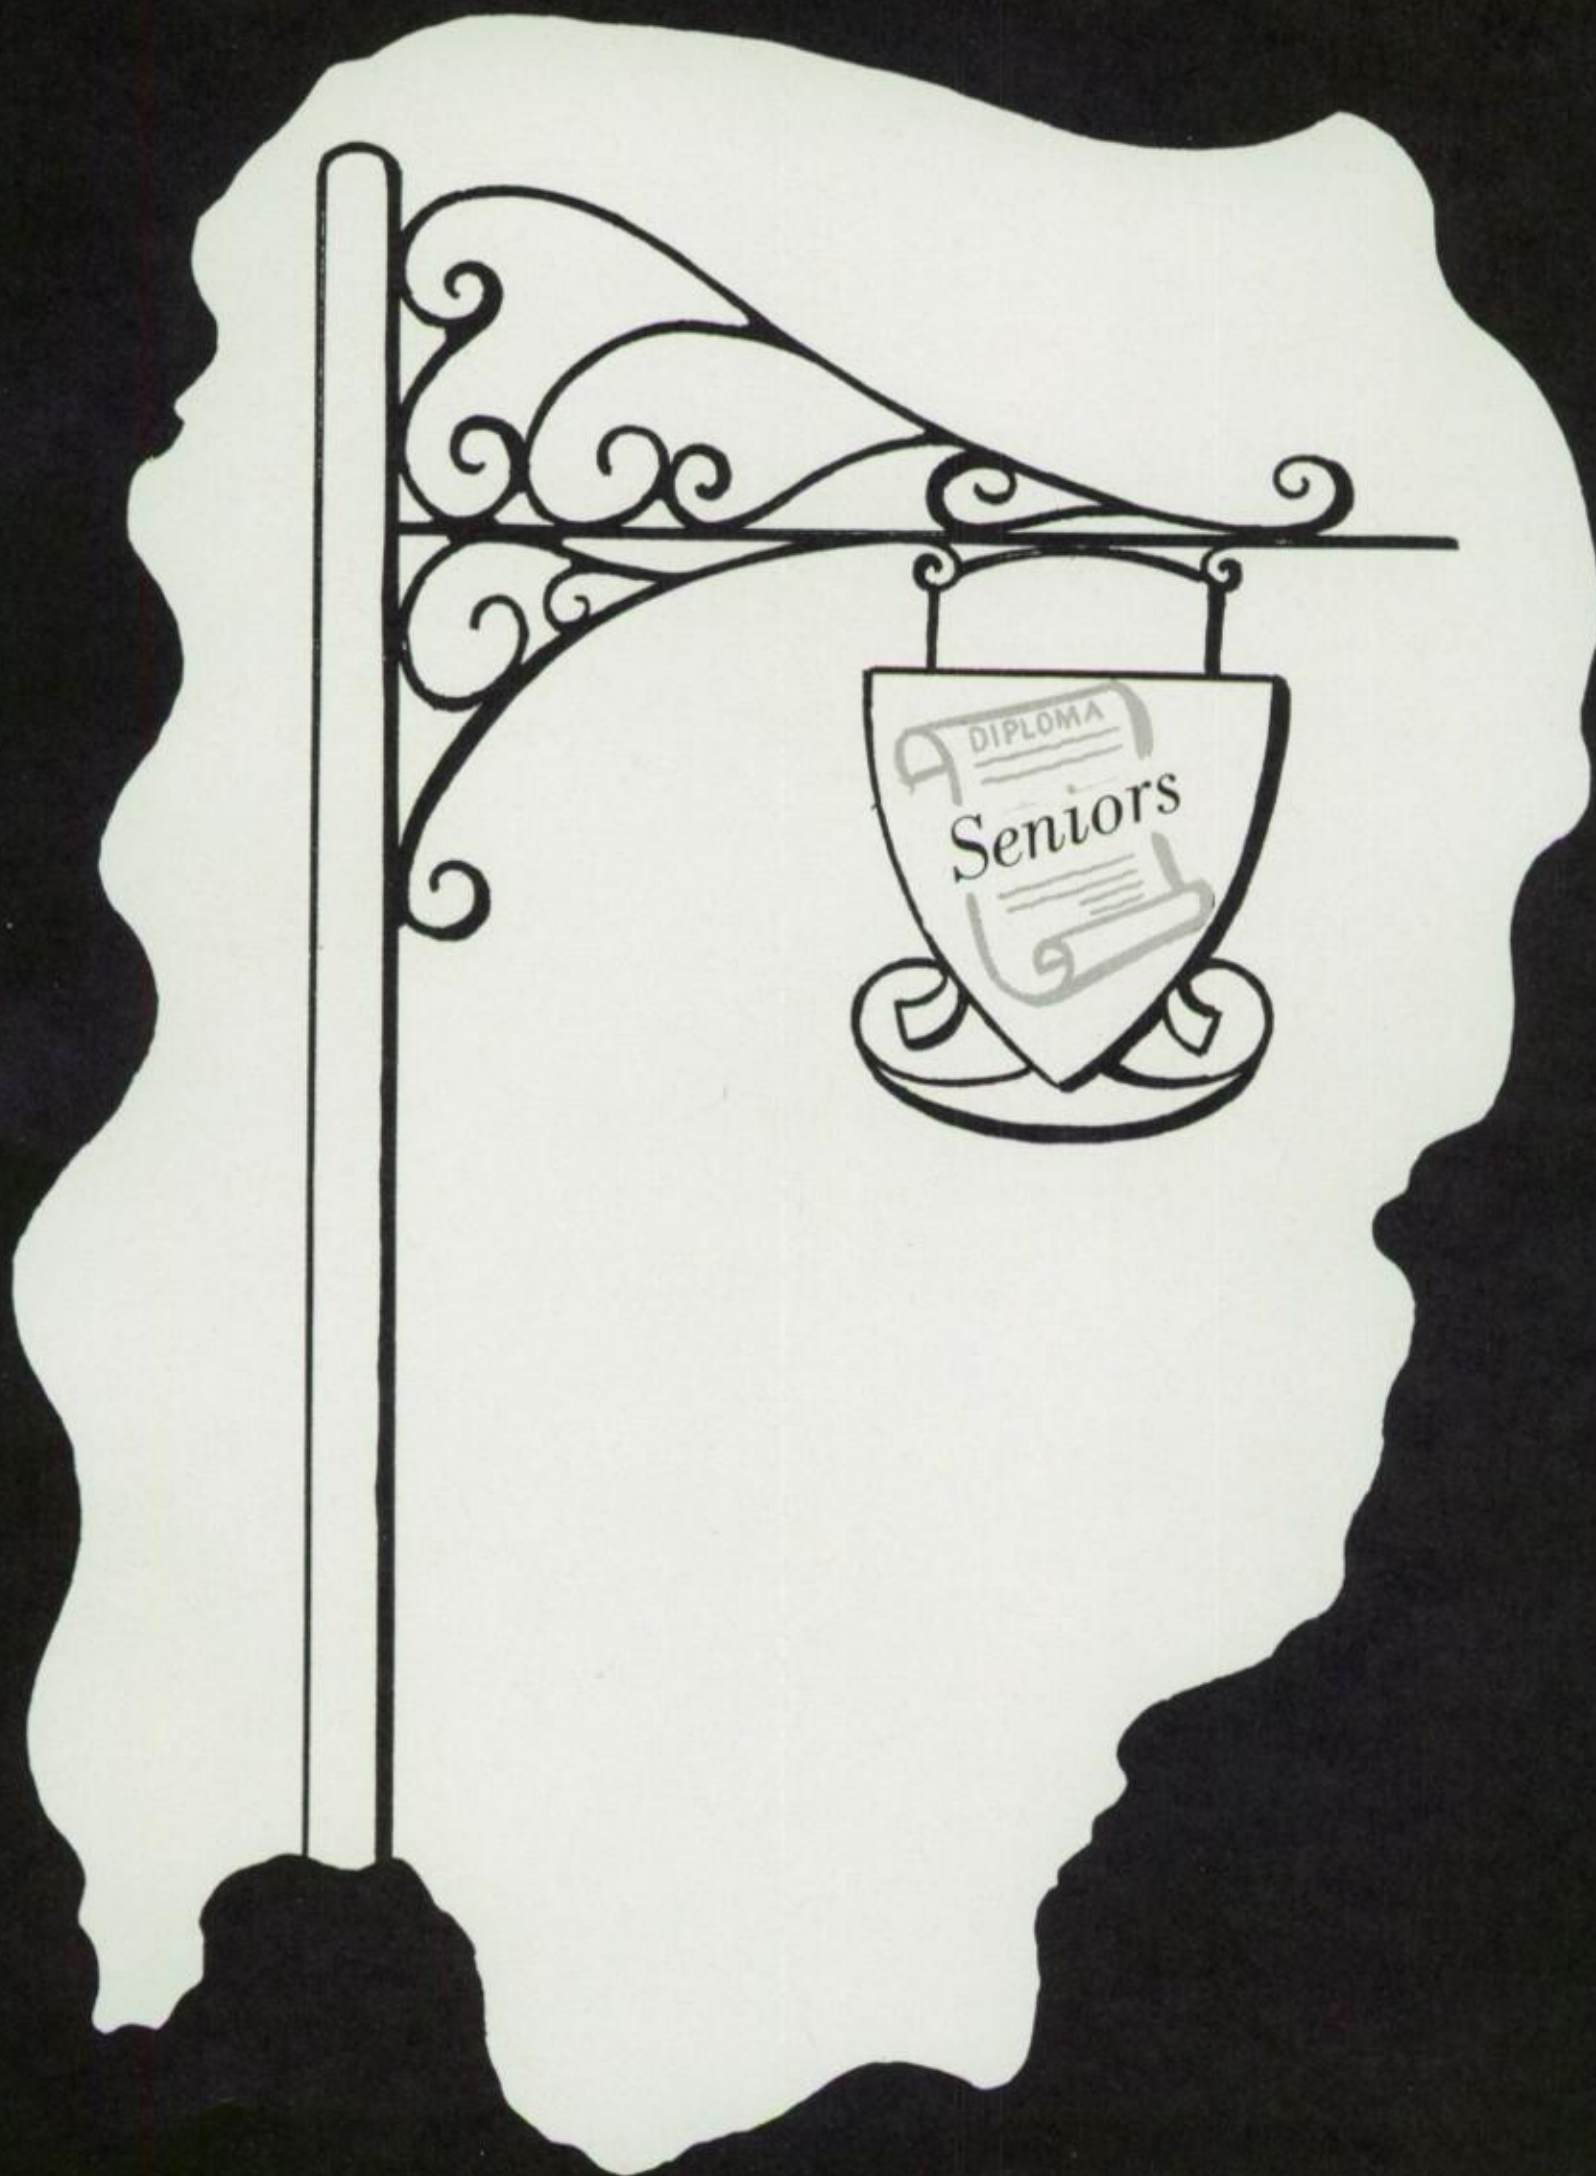

Few, if any, class groups have contributed more to Essex Junction High School.

I congratulate you both as a class and as individuals for your many accomplishments and wish you every success for the future.

Sincerely,

Chester M. Taggart

We, the class of 1960, of Essex Junction High School, on the fourteenth day of June, 1960, hereby establish our last will and testament.

- I, GUY ALLBEE, leave much to be desired.
- I, JACK ANDERSON, leave my math system to Mr. Walcott.
- I, BETTY ARNOLD, leave "Wells" enough alone.
- I, JOHN BAILEY, leave my questions in Physics class to Ken Schwenn.
- I, MIKE BAILEY, leave while the getting is good.
- I, GARY BAKER, leave the monitor system to the birds.
- I, KENNETH BARROWS, leave my pitching arm to Gary Irish.
- I, MARY ANN BARTINOSKI, leave my ability to get in my locker to Greg Laskowski.
- I, CAROL ANN BASHAW, leave my quietness to Candy Allan.
- I, CAROL SIBYL BASHAW, leave my pranks to Joan Cass.
- I, CARL BICKMORE, leave my help in the library to Cliff Yates.
- I, NORMAN BLAIR, leave . . . I don't want to leave.
- I, ANTOINETTE BOUTIN, leave my naturally curly hair to Janet Ward.
- I, JAMES BROWN, leave my mooching ability to Dave Taft.
- I, DOROTHY CARLSON, leave to the beat of the drums.
- I, REG CARPENTER, leave my brother all my chores.
- I, PAT CARTY, leave my sister all my good marks.
- I, LARRY CHASE, leave my size to John Moshier.
- I, BARBARA CONNELLY, leave my fast driving to Nancy Warner.
- I, MATT COON, leave my long, black hair to Larry Jones.
- I, PETER COTA, leave my motor scooter to Jeff Taft.
- I, DICK CULVER, leave my cuddliness to George Pillsbury.
- I, NANCY CUSHING, leave my typing speed to Sandra Kellett.
- I, DOROTHY DEGREE, leave my size to Joan Pillsbury.
- I, DICK DERMODY, leave for lack of something better to do.
- I, JOHN DUVAL, leave my jocular personality to Jane Gregory.
- I, JOHN EASTMAN, leave my deep voice to Scott Berry.
- I, SETH EBERHARDT, leave my wild parties to Tony Stevens.
- I, BOB EMERY, will not leave my accordion.
- I, ED FLEMING, leave my safe driving to Bob Gregory.
- I, ANNE FORSEY, leave my reputation as a talker in Miss Hapgood's English class to Virginia Rouleau.
- I, ETHEL GAUDETTE, leave my long ride to school to Linda Osterhoudt.
- I, AUDREY GOKEY, leave the teachers at peace.
- I, BETTY GOKEY, leave my nickname of "Pizza" to anyone who fits it.
- I, PHYLLIS GRADY, leave my common sense to next year's senior class.
- I, GORDON HAYDEN, leave for good.
- I, CATHERINE HEALEY, leave my industriousness to future Freshmen.
- I, SYLVIA HOLLAND, leave my ability to work in the kitchen to anyone who wants it.
- I, CLINT HOLMES, leave to E.J.H.S. my old black Ford to be used for school transportation.

Class Prophecy

It is the reunion of the Class of '60. It is 1975 and as we look around we spot some slightly familiar people. We see Guy Albee who has started the first doughnut factory on Mars.

We also see that:

Jack Anderson is head of a committee investigating payola in TV.

Betty Arnold is a confirmed Beatnik.

John Bailey is a nuclear physicist.

Mike Bailey runs a food market and takes orders by short wave.

Kenneth Barrows is a twenty-game winner with the Boston Red Sox.

Gary Baker runs a chain of clothing stores rivaling Robert Hall.

Mary Ann Bartinoski sells elevator shoes for men.

Carol Ann Bashaw is a torch singer in a New Orleans cabaret.

Carol Sibyl Bashaw is a comedienne on Broadway.

Carl Bickmore—Sings at the Met.

Norman Blair—Writes for Mad—and is!

Antoinette Boutin—Is a race driver in the Powder Puff Association.

Jim Brown—Is an Army Captain in charge of Recreation.

Dorothy Carlson—Has a job in the Chicago office of Slenderella.

Reg Carpenter—Is head of the National Dairy Council.

Pat Carty—Is a millionaire making a fortune in the stock market.

Larry Chase—Is a professional wrestler.

Barbara Connelly—Is a food consultant for Duncan Hines.

Matt Coon—Is a "rock and roll" singer.

Pete Cota—Is the manager of Pierre's Beauty Salon with coiffures by "Pam."

Dick Culver—Has developed into a well-rounded individual.

Nancy Cushing—Is a fashion editor for Vogue.

Dorothy Degree—Is a secretary for Glamour Magazine.

Dick Dermody—Writes a love-lorn column in the Boston Herald.

John Duval—Is running for State Senator from Hawaii.

John Eastman—Is the proud owner of Underhill.

Seth Eberhardt—Is national chairman of the Women's Temperance League.

Bob Emery—Is known as the Lawrence Welk of Channel 3.

Ed Fleming—Is a Driver Ed. teacher for reckless teenagers in Burlington.

Anne Forsey—Is an auctioneer.

Ethel Gaudette—Is an airplane stunt pilot.

Audrey Gokey—Is a deep sea diver.

Betty Gokey—Is make-up consultant for Revlon.

Phyllis Grady—Is a marriage consultant at B.H.S.

Gordon Hayden—Runs a chain of motels across the Sahara Desert.

Cathy Healey—Works in a chicken plucking factory and is known as a "fowler."

Sylvia Holland—Runs a New York cafeteria.

Clint Holmes—Owns the only ranch in the city of Dallas, Texas.
 Allan Irish—Recently came in third as comedian on Arthur Godfrey's Talent Scouts.
 Pam Janicki—Works at "Pierre's Beauty Salon" with coiffures by "Pam."
 David Jones, world famous cheerleading instructor.
 Patricia Kaiman, first soprano in Rigoletto.
 William Kalanges, typing teacher at Weeks School.
 James LaGrange, food connoisseur at the Hotel Vermont.
 William LaMore, successful shoe salesman.
 David Lawrence, president of the American Bowling Congress.

For the second year in a row the E.J.H.S. Band played during the half times of the home basketball games. Needless to say, the rousing sounds of our fine band under Mr. McLure's inspiring baton added to the enjoyment of the basketball games.

Band

This is the third year that Mr. McLure has directed the E.J.H.S. Band. Since he has come to E.J.H.S., the band has not only increased in size but also in the quality of its sounds. This year, three Seniors are traveling to Washington, D.C., to play in the Cherry Blossom Festival. Congratulations go, not only to Mr. McLure, but to Mary Lou McLure, David Lawrence and Carol S. Bashaw who are making this trip on behalf of the Student Body of Essex Junction High School.

THE BEST SHOCK-PROOF LUNGS FOUND IN ESSEX HIGH

The cheerleaders readily admit that leading a student body isn't as easy as it looks. Long hours of hard practice are needed to get precision among the Varsity and Junior Varsity cheerleaders. However, cheerleading also means fun! Fun in the form of out-of-town bus trips and games.

Fifteen rahs to these hard working gals who strive to build the spirit of EJHS.

Our Pepsters leading the student body and team on to victory.
